

kaupseed.com
eswift@kaupseed.com
402-372-5588
kaupseed.com

Crop Management Tech Intern

West Point, NE

Description: Kaup Crop Management Tech Interns gain practical, hands-on experience in the operation, maintenance, and application of equipment essential to successful crop production.

Great for those interested in:

- Becoming an applicator
- Learning more about crop nutrients and products
- Operating & working on a variety of equipment

Primary Responsibilities:

- Learn how to operate heavy farm equipment
- Perform application of crop nutrients and crop protection products
- Assist with scouting and product transportation
- Responsible for preventative maintenance and minor equipment repair
- Help with seed and fertilizer plant operations
- Capable of lifting 50lbs frequently

Minor Responsibilities:

- Maintenance of application, sprayer, and delivery equipment
- Help in plant processing, delivery, or maintenance
- Assist in plant and vehicle housekeeping program
- Promote healthy relationships with our customer base
- All other duties as assigned or requested by the manager

kaupseed.com
eswift@kaupseed.com
402-372-5588
kaupseed.com

Skills and Abilities Required

- Basic fertilizer and chemical product knowledge
- Computer skills – ability to operate ipads and equipment monitors
- Good understanding of chemical mixing and safety procedures
- Able and willing to operate a variety of equipment
- Ability to read and understand equipment manuals
- Good math skills – ability to compute rate, ratio and interpret bar graphs

Education/Experience/License needed for this position:

- Working towards an Ag degree or 2 years of agronomy experience
- Custom Applicators license (can be obtained during employment)
- Ability to read and interpret documents such as procedural
- Valid driver's license required

On-the-job Hazard/Working Conditions:

- Will be working with crop nutrients and ag chemicals
- Ability to work under stressful conditions
- Will be working with heavy equipment in various field conditions